Improved Bath for Sheep,

On sale at JOHN EASTMAN and SON'S (Sole Agents) Druggist Store,
DEFENSA Nos, 9 & 11.

This newly imported preparation, declared by judges and sheep-farmers in England and Australia to be practically the "non plus ultra" among the numberless inventions for this purpose, destroys in less than half an hour all kinds of vermin to which sheep are subjected—rendering the wool beautifully white—nourishing and increasing the growth of the same considerably more than those pernicious corrosive poisons, so generally applied—and costing not more than one half of any other bath now in use.

Important Sale.

The facilities which the position of this estancia offer for shipment of produce and the low rate of freight, being only 5½ paper dollars per arrobe of wool, added to the excellent quality of the land renders this a rare and valuable opportunity for any person wishing to enter into the business of sheep-farming

LONDON SOCIETY:

THE MIRROR OF ENGLISH LIFE.

The six volumes of this extraordinary work show at a glance to what it owes its singular success in England. Written by the most brilliant littérateurs of London, and with nearly 500 exquisite illustrations by the first artists of the day, they present the most curious and interesting collection ever drawn together of tales, sketches, and humorous descriptions, representing not only the strange and varied phases of London life, but of Modern English Society, whether considered in its in-door or out-door aspect—in its festal or domestic character. From the court of St. James's to the waifs and strays of our civilization, all ranks and classes are depicted, at work or at play—in mirth or in sadness.

No other series of volumes in our language presents so much in the form of light and amusing literature for the hours of relaxation—none which so brings out the grace and glory of English life by matchless delineations of its youth and beauty. It is unique in English literature, and the possessor of a set of London Society holds a sovereign charm against hours of ennui.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

ARRIVAL OF THE RIO DE LA PLATA.

GREAT UPROAR IN SALTO.

YOUNG FLORES SHOOTING A HOTEL-KEEPER.

The steamer Rio de la Plata arrived early yesterday morning from Concordia. As she was not expected in before 12 o'clock, the crowd on the Mole was not so great as usual. The passengers on being interrogated as to the news, stated there was nothing particular; the allied army still remained at Concordia. We received from our intelligent correspondent in Salto the following important letter:—

Salto, August 6.

News has come in to-day from Uruguayana by a 'chasque,' that that place has been abandoned without fighting, but still no authentic or reliable information has come to hand, except from private sources. Government will not publish bad news; and I will not and cannot guarantee the truth of this; but it having been told to me by two influential Colorado gentlemen in town, who, I know would hardly say it without foundation, gives a certain amount of credence to it.

A great riot took place here last Thursday. The Brazilian troops attacked the police of the town for having arrested a Brazilian soldier who had committed a robbery. Your correspondent was called in next day by the Brazilian Consul, with three other gentlemen, to investigate the affair, but the decision has not been come to yet. One soldier (Brazilian) was killed, the 'comisario's' quarters fired into by a party of 100 soldiers, doors smashed, rooms sacked, and the greatest alarm in town. It has been the greatest riot yet in this place.

Full particualrs in next by Tevere; also of Don Eduardo Flore's attack on one of the two principal hotel-keepers of this town, wounding him severely; damages through the Italian Consul laid at an enormous sum, and supported by the Minister at Montevideo.

LATEST NEWS FROM RIO.

IMPORTANT ITEMS.

The steamer Herschell arrived yesterday, bringing several days' later news from Rio Janeyro.

In that city the most intense war feeling prevails, and the constant arrival of refugee families from the provinces has increased the sensation.

A division is crossing through San Paulo, bound for Matto Grosso, and the Rio papers publish some interesting items from the commanding officer.

An Italian shopkeeper from Curumba has arrived near Rio, having crossed through the heart of Brazil. Curumba has been fortified by the Paraguayans. In Cuyàba there is a garrison of 400 Paraguayans and two steamers.

Sr. Pereira, from Matto Grosso, also escaped. He suffered the most unheard of hardships in crossing the country: his wife and children were murdered by the Indians.

In Rio there was nothing else talked of but the war. Business dull, gold scarce and at a premium. Recruiting is the order of the day throughout the entire empire.

NEWS FROM ENTRE-RIOS.

We have received papers from Gualeguaychú 7th, Concordia 6th, and Mercedes (Rio Negro) 3rd inst.

The Blanco refugees have received special assurances (says the 'Porvenir') from General Urquiza that they shall not be molested, notwithstanding the urgency of the Buenos Ayrean press in calling on President Mitre, for their removal. The same paper criticizes some verses by a Brazilian officer, published in the 'Tribuna,' about drinking out of Paraguayan's skulls; and the tone of the Entre-Rian papers is far from favorable to the Triple Alliance.

Rumors were current of a engagement having taken place between Flores and the enemy beyond the Miriñay, but the result is unknown. It is also said that Canavarro had crossed the Uruguay and fought a battle in Misiones.

On the 2nd inst. Mme. Miguel Gonsalez gave a grand party at Concordia to the officers of the Buenos Ayres and Santa Fé infantries. Lieut. Guillon, who died at Rosario, was a native of Entre-Rios and had been educated at New York.

From the Rio Negro (Banda Oriental) we learn that two deserters and a quantity of arms have been seized in the islands near Mercedes. A merchant named Antonio Moreno died suddenly of apoplexy. A grand ball took place at Fray Bentos on the 2nd, and business was improving.

NEWS OF THE WAR.

The correspondences published by us and our colleagues from the seat of war are pretty much of accord, and may be summed up as follows:

Robles or Barrios is gone east to look after Paunero, who is near Mercedes, in the centre of Corrientes.

Caceres with his militia has had to fall back, notwithstanding the victory of Ambrosio, and is now near Goya.

The Brazilian fleet seems to have been an impassive spectator of the sack of Bella Vista, and even allowed the enemy's steamers to come down and carry away the booty.

The invading column on the Paraná is not less than 30,000 men, and the sack of Goya will be the next news.

The winter-quarters and new plantations seem to have been abandoned on learning the affair of Basualdo, when active operations re-commenced.

Gen. Urquiza has again summoned his army for August 28th, but the events of the campaign will probably changeplans in the interim.

Gen. Paunero's division is about equi-tdisant from the Paraná and Uruguay, and will, we hope, come up with Flores' army, before the Paraguayans come up.

On evacuating Bella Vista by the inhabitants they filled no less than 14 sailing vessels, all escaping in great terror.

LATEST FROM PAUNERO'S CAMP.

Garcia-cuè, Dep. of Mercedes,
July 20th.

My dear friend:—

Since my last there has been nothing of importance hereaboats, and I write now to give you the diary of our march since leaving Puesto del Medio. We were encamped there until the 15th, when we got orders to march and moved on to the estancia called 'the lonely tree' [Arbol solo] where we remained till the 17th: marched to Puesto Punta (coast of the river Batel), and stayed there till the 20th: next to Itacurubí, and left there for Paso Colodrero on the 21st.; camped next day at Paso Tala; on the 23rd at Paso Mellizos, were we halted till the 26th, on which day we pushed on to Paso Nuevo on the river of Corrientes and commenced crossing the river. On the 27th we encamped beyond the river, waiting to get our baggage and artillery across. Marched on the 28th for Costa Pay-ubre Garcia-cuè, where we have remained till to-day, and have now received orders again to march.

According to rumors prevalent here a large body of Paraguayans is coming in pursuit of us, which will account for our making such precipitous marches; although according to others we are pushing on to a rendezvous where General Mitre has agreed to meet us with the army. I think before long we shall have great military operations.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Rio de la Plata from Concordia arrived in port yesterday bringing very important news from Salto, Banda Oriental. Full particulars will be found in our correspondent's letter.

A very important scheme for colonizing all the southern portion of this Province, from the Rio Colorado to the Straits of Magellan, has been presented to Congress. We have received a pamphlet on the subject which we will review after the packet leaves. The proposal is one of the most stupendous ever brought before the public, and although it has our entire support, we entertain grave doubts of its being carried out.

Our colleague the 'Nacion' publishes a statistical table of the whole 'guardia nacional' of the Republic, which amounts to 184,478 men; it is a humiliating fact that notwithstanding this great number, the Government finds such difficulty in getting a few thousand men.

We have seen a drawing of Sr. Dutcil's new statue for the public school at Chivilcoy; it will be a credit to the sculptor who is a gentleman of great talent, and an ornament to that thriving town.

The town is greatly divided as to Genl. Urquiza and his men, some believe that his army will be ready when the war is over, others that he will be in the field in a few days. A member of Congress has offered to bet one hundred ounces that in a few days Urquiza will have his army ready to march. Will no one take him up?

Susini's regiment is gone at last; the Pavon took the men up to Concordia. Mateo Martinez's regiment was to have been shipped yesterday, but the Tevere did not arrive as was expected: they will probably be shipped to-day.

Yesterday there was a general anxiety to hear something about Flores and his rumoured fight with the Paraguayans. Strange to say, there is not a man in town who knows any thing, save of course the Minister of War, we have studied the map as carefully as if we were in command of the allied army and are of opinion that there has been no fight whatsoever yet.

A vessel has arrived in port from Pomerania with sixty negretti rams and seventy negretti ewes: these animals come from the well known establishment of Mr. Homeyer, consigned to Messrs. H. Bunge and Co., and will be sold on the 18th by Mr. Nazar the auctioneer. We hear so much about this far famed breed that we think it worthy of special notice. Homeyer's negrette sheep are probably the best known in this country: all the leading estancieros of Buenos Ayres have one or more of these celebrated rams, Mr. Hannah, Mr. Clark, Mr. Van Praet, Sr. Cascallares, Amadeo, Mr. Healy and others. In Entre Rios they are to be found on Mr. Black's estancia, and in the Banda Oriental some of the principal estancieros also have them. The animals landed yesterday are strong, healthy and in prime condition; we recommend our country friends to inspect them.

The subscription for the widow of Capdevila, of the Bolsa, amounted to $59,000 m|c.

The embargo has been taken off Sr. Egusquiza's property. We learn of a horrible murder in Ensenada: details to-morrow.

Yesterday the absorbing topic through town was Mr. Oldendorff's splendid Arabian horses. The place where the animals are was crowded, and we noticed there the leading men of Buenos Ayres; having been promised a full account of these splendid animals, we have only to say that they are the admiration of all who have seen them.

The Herschel left Montevideo on Sunday night but was blown back by the storm: she landed her mails and passengers about 1 o'clock yesterday. She brings a large and valuable cargo.

A young woman dressed in men's clothes was chased down Calle Bolivar on Tuesday night by an alcalde and two policemen; she escaped by suddenly entering a house in calle Belgrano and gaining the azotea.

THE FORTIN DE ARECO.

JUDGE'S REPORT.

The Partido of the Fortin, or as it is now called Carmen de Areco, is one of the richest and most important districts in this province, peopled as it is by foreigners, nearly all of whom are wealthy and independent men: it boasts of more sheep and wool than any other northern partido of the same size. Probably the real cause why this partido has made such rapid strides is, that the virtual Justice of the Peace and administrator of public affairs, is Mr. Archibald Craig, one of the most active, energetic, go-a-head foreigners in this country.

Some ten years ago this partido was regarded as a frontier district, but it soon became thickly settled when Mr. Hall, Mr. Murray, and a few other enterprising foreigners purchased estates in the locality. Hitherto, however, this district has had one great drawback, inasmuch as it lies on the high road to the provinces. Whenever there is a row, revolution, or civil war, either army, and generally both, passed through the Fortin, which has been the cause of much and severe loss to our countrymen. Judging from the report before us, we would opine that the town is improving and the population prosperous; but we notice many strange items in the accounts before us, which call for explanation.

The Judge, who appears to be a sort of Argentine Laird, has evidently discovered some important relics of the past, probably in his own garden, for he begins his report by telling the Minister that the Fortin is the most ancient town in the province, and yet notwithstanding this, it has received less protection from the Government than any other town in the camp.

The church of the Fortin is beyond all question the St. Sophia of the river Plate, for his Worship says it has already cost one million, and is not yet completely finished. Of this sum the Government has only contributed the paltry sum of $40,000, and the consequence is, that the Municipality not only is in debt to all the neighbors about, but actually to many of the very workmen: the architect's bill was only paid last year. The Judge remarks that in order to get up his report he has been obliged to examine the 'archives,' which are in a most deplorable state; and he notes with regret that whilst every other town is progressing, the Fortin is becoming worse and worse. There is no 'juzgado' or house for the Judge, and consequently the only court in the town is held in an old shed or outhouse. An old tumble-down 'rancho' was formerly the official residence of the Judge, until his Excellency changed quarters. The prison is in such a shocking state, that the stocks would frighten old Riccabocca, or Mr. Hazeldean himself; prisoners put in at night have to be rounded all night, otherwise they are 'non est inventus' in the morning.

Thanks to the generosity of the Government, which has given one hundred thousand dollars, a public school for boys is about to be built; it cost three hundred thousand dollars, but it will be a magnificent building when finished and paid for. This building his Worship says will point to posterity what Governor Saavedra did for the town, and be an imperishable monument of the great go-a-headism of his Excellency.

But the state of the police seems to be the most shocking thing imaginable. The Judge says the poor fellows have not even got clothes, and that 12 'vigilantes' are unable to keep order and maintain the law. On the 15th February last year the Government was requested to send clothes for the policemen; but to this hour the Minister has not sent down even a second-hand 'chiripa.' At night time the town is completely abandoned, as the policemen retire early to rest. The state of crime seems to be something frightful, for the Judge says that in consequence of the repeated robberies on the estancias, a special commission has been named to inquire into the matter. It appears that there has been systematic robbery going on, driving cattle, &c., up to the provinces. The Judge regards the pedlars or 'mercachilles' as a sort of Paraguayans, who by an illicit trade are ruining the shopkeepers and cheating the Government.

The Municipal rent for the year amounts to $117,000, a rather respectable sum. 'Guias' for produce give $8,680. Señal papers for sheep $9,200, and 'quintas' sold $8,883. Rent of chacras, $34,126. This looks well. Contribucion Directa looks rather small, $5,013. Licenses or patentes, $24,664. This shows the trade of the place; and fines $8,000, which is higher than in other partidos.

The money, of course, has been all spent, but we notice that the amount put down for celebration of public feasts, fire-crackers, &c., is beyond all precedent, 17,738. Why, it would seem as if they had a holiday every week in the Fortin. Then again the improving of the plaza seems rather dear, $15,666, for posts and chains. The plaza must be much larger than in the other towns, and the lamps put up round the town, a necessary improvement, are not to say cheap in $4,000 m|c.

The following are debts due by the town:—

Dn. Justo Rodriguez, cash lent on church . . .	.	$50,000
" Marcelino Romero	do. .	13,137
" Juan Pedernera	do. .	20,588
		$83,722

Mr. Edward Rodriguez seems a pushing sort of judge, and we hope will drive the Fortin ahead, but he gives no statistics as to the population or stock of the partido, and we hope next year he will improve on his report.

THE ARGENTINE CUSTOM-HOUSES IN 1864.

Rosario, August 7th, 1865.

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen.

I have been reading an article of yours on the above named subject in your weekly impression of 2nd inst, and its perusal obliges me to make a few observations on your manner of treating this important matter: without pretending to be either a Montgomery Martin, or a M'Culloch the statistics of a nation's commerce have always for me a peculiar interest, when they are framed on correct bases; when not done in this manner, they must only appear as a mockery, a delusion and a snare. You state:—

"The Custom-house of Buenos Ayres stands for more than three-fourths of the whole revenue, shewing an aggregate of 5¼ millions, while Rosario, Gualeguaychú, Concordia and Concepcion make up another million, and the remaining 28 ports barely add up half-a million.

Rosaries occupies the second rank undisputed, contributing 600,000 $ which shews that Buenos Ayres has still nine times the trade of the great port of the Provinces. In Rosario the imports are as 4 to 1 with the exports; while in Buenos Ayres they only stand as 2 to 1."

Perhaps it may be no harm for me to give you a statistical table of last year's returns of our Custom-house Exports here, given to me by the Administrador, Señor Yaniz. They are as follows:—

Exports from Rosario in 1864.

Exports liable to duty in Rosario $1,190,799, Exchange at 21 Bol. 4 rls. for the ounce at 65s in London, £180,972

Do duty free 1,299,689, do do £197, 521.

Do payable for duty in B. Ayres $84,660. — Total 3,375,150, do do £134,466.—Total £512,858.

What I simply desire to know is whether your Custom-house includes these products from the interior provinces paying duty in transitu at Bueno Ayres as its own exports, or whether they are credited to their proper source

Your remarks about the imports at Rosario being as 4 to 1 with exports, whilst in Buenos Ayres they only stand as 3 to 2 obliges me to make a few more observations. I have before me some tables compiled by Señor J. A. Campos who was Gefe de la Oficina. Estadistica here in 1860-61. One of these tables—that for the first quarter of the year 1861, gives the following statement of the value of exports to places outside of this port.

	Valor por Nacionos. Bolivian dol.	Eng. money.
Buenos Ayres	645 188 65	£112 905
Inglaterra	21 257 77	£3 720
Estado Oriental	61 215 51	£10 712
	$727 661 93	£127 340

Let me ask you, does not this strike you as a perfect farce of a statistical return, unless indeed we are to believe that all the wool, hides, and copper proceeding from Rosario are intended in the above proportion, perhaps disproportion would be a better word—between Buenos Ayres and England. Do your Custom-house people reckon those native products of the provinces amongst its imports, and do they enumerate them amongst the productions of their own province, when sent to Europe or North America? And another little question. Can having duties to pay in Buenos Ayres for exporting from Rosario, or elsewhere, have anything to do with the conclusion you arrive at, that the Buenos Ayres Custom-house stands for more than three-fourths of the whole revenue of the nation.

You know, Gentlemen, that I am not fond of carping, but a thing like this—so directly contrary to common justice—galls me even in this cool weather: no one respects Buenos Ayres politics, paper-money, and its own idea of being the "be all and the end all" of the Argentine Republic more than I do. But tall talk of the kind I cannot stand; as the Doctors say it is not good for the health of

Your obt. servant,
A ROSARINO.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.

Since the explosion of the Retiro, no unforeseen calamity has come to shock the propriety of our citizens, and indeed public misfortunes (wars excepted) are happily so rare in these countries that precaution is a quality unknown. A word in time may, however be apropos; and we will even risk the epithet of 'Job's comforter', by calling attention to the fact that a great calamity such as those common in Europe may happen at any time and find us wholly unprepared for the consequences.

If a plague broke out to-morrow, thousands would fall victims, and afterwards it would be discovered that the Recoleta cemetery was too full, that bad meat and vegetables were openly sold in the markets, that some Brazilians had imported the small-pox from Salto, or that the water-vendors were not particular where they took a supply for their carts.

If the prisoners in the Cabildo sallied out 'en masse' and could not be re-captured, it would be discovered when too late that the guard was kept in a slovenly manner, that no regular inspection took place, and that the insecurity of the prison amounted to insecurity for life or property.

If a disastrous fire consumed one of our city-blocks, it would probably extend through several streets before being got under or dying out, and then we should learn that the police relied on the Volunteer fire-brigade, and the engines of the latter accidentally got out of order.

If a fearful railway accident plunged some hundred families in mourning it would be owing to some bridge giving way, or some driver getting drunk, or a mistake of signals, which could have been averted if there were a general inspector of railways and steamboats.

If some three-story house hastily put up fell down like the Concepcion church killing 50 persons, the blame would be put on the architect, until some one casually hinted municipal responsability.

If burglary and street assaults became of daily occurrence, the sufferers would vainly complain to the Gefe de Policia, and the organization of the foot-pads be found perhaps superior to that of the Police.

If bands of deserters suddenly infested the rural districts, the Justices of Peace would draw up 'Sumarios' of the fact, but declare their utter impotency to crush the evil.

If another gunpowder explosion took place, with still more fatal consequences, people would wonder at such incantion, but no one in particular would be found to blame, and a funeral service would end the catastrophe.

These are, obviously, calamities which may happen at any time, and to which we are at present more exposed, since the attention of the authorities is so much taken up with the war that even ordinary precaution in other matters is neglected. Our earnestness in wishing Buenos Ayres may be saved from any and all such misfortunes is exactly the reason why we call the notice of the Government and the public to the old adage which forms the title of these remarks.

INTERESTING TO SHEEP-BREEDERS

Our paper has always been open to all that could increase the prosperity of this country, as we considered it our duty in doing so to acknowledge the great hospitality which the country of our adoption is so kindly affording us.

With a similar view, we published a short time ago an article taken and translated from the German paper published in this city, referring to a new arrival of some superior Negretti ewes and rams selected by Mr. Ernest Oldendorff of the well known Estancia Santa Maria, during his last visit to Germany.

This shipment consisting of 115 ewes and 87 rams has arrived in the meantime in splendid condition on board the ship Leibnitz from Hamburg, and as we have heard this collection spoken of in the most praiseworthy terms, we resolved to inspect it in person, to satisfy duly our own curiosity.

We had also seen Mr. Oldendorff's former importations, and knowing that his reputation of being a practical and thoroughly experienced sheepbreeder both in Europe and here, is most justly established, we were prepared to find a very superior selection,—yet we must confess that our expectations have been exceeded by far, by the animals which Mr. Oldendorff has presented to us for inspection and which form his last importation.

Undoubtedly it is a high guarantee for us to see animals imported by a man who must be after his long experience, and being proprietor of a well known establishment in this country, well acquainted with the necessary character and quantities of animals suiting the purposes of our sheepbreeders. We now do not hesitate to acknowledge that we consider it our duty to pay Mr. Oldendorff our compliments for the splendid selection he made.

Any man interested in this matter, will know that the actual circumstances of this country do not allow the breed of what is called highly refined sheep, but that it ought to be the problem of our breeders to create well woolled animals, that is to say, always connected with a certain fineness and softness of the wool. We can assert that, according to our opinion, these qualities are fully represented in Mr. Oldendorff's animals as we seldom have seen such abundance of wool joined with the necessary fineness. But we cannot be surprised by such facts when we examine the pedigrees of the animals which proceed from the most renowned establishments of Passow, Falkenhagen and Weisin where only Negretti sheep of the purest breed are kept and which originate from the celebrated old establishment of Hochstisch.

Mr. Oldendorff tells us that he intends to sell on the 22nd inst. by public auction [at Messrs. Stock and Co's. house—23 calle Chacabuco—where the animals are to be seen], a part of the ewes and rams, leaving the whole lot for selection. We call the attention of our countrymen and estancieros in general to this sale as we consider it a most eligible opportunity to secure some really good specimens, for an improvement of their flocks.

We regret that we could not see at the same time the stallions and mares of pure Arabian breed, also imported by Mr. Oldendorff, as they have not yet been landed: hence we have to postpone our report about them for another early opportunity. These horses have been bought out of the studs of the King of Wurtemberg which are known to be the most celebrated in the continent of Europe.

Before closing these lines, we may congratulate this country and especially our camp friends that they count men amongst them who, with valuable perseverance and knowledge, make it their study to improve the breeding of animals like these, which constitute the riches of this country.

CAPTURE IN CORDOBA OF THE MURDERERS OF MR. MARSHALL.

The last Diligence arriving in Rosario on Friday night, 4th inst. brings intelligence of the murderers of Mr. Marshall being caught at a place called Colonia, about ten leagues north of the City of Cordoba. They have confessed the crime. The chief assassin is Jose Alarcon, a native of Buenos Ayres, but who has been for several years occupied in Rosario as a carter. Indeed he was recognised in Cordoba by Don Ramon Torres and Don Miguel Rueda—both of whom are respectable merchants from Rosario. His two accomplices are Juan Ferreyra and Manuel Carrizo, the former of whom says he endeavoured to persuade Alarcon from committing the foul deed. Alarcon is said to be a nephew of the well known Chivengo. Part of Mr. Marshall's binocular glass were found on his person when captured. It seems that by the mark of Mr. Marshall's horse, published in placards by the English Commission in Rosario, these ruffians had been tracked by the zeal and activity of a Cordoba detective named Don Pancho Gigena, who goes by the name of Don Pancho Diligencia, and when the last mail left, they were heavily laden with irons at the police station waiting to be conveyed down to Rosario.

Their confession is to the following effect, and is uncommonly cool. It seems they were helping themselves to one of Mr. Marshall's shssp when that gentleman approaching, Alarcon who had a pistol and very probably knew that Mr. Marshall never carried one, fired at and missed the latter gentleman. Mr. Marshall set spurs to his horse no doubt turning towards home; but Alarcon pursued, overtook, and stabbed him, repeating the stabs, till he killed him. The annals of crime can scarcely furnish such a cold-blooded outrage.

AWFUL OCCURRENCE.

On Tuesday evening a shocking affair occured at the corner of calles Santa Fé and Andes. It appears the neighborhood is infested with gangs of ferocious dogs, and one of these animals waylaid a poor child only 5 years old, inflicting such injuries as to destroy the child's arm and perhaps endanger its life. The little sufferer was at once taken to Dr. Leslie, who, with his usual kindness to the poor of that district, attended to the child's wounds and lent every assistance. There being no police in the neighborhood it is hardly to be hoped such cases will not be repeated; but we understand that Dr. Leslie intends to call serious attention to the evil. The dog in question has been killed, but it is necessary to exterminate several hundreds, as some poor families who live by begging keep as many as 15, for the protection of a miserable rancho.

GREAT DIVING FEAT IN THE OUTER ROADS

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Sir,

I will feel much obliged if you will mention in your columns the services I have received from Geronimo Kane, who with another diver in the Outer Roads recovered two pieces of valuable machinery, lost overboard from my vessel, I therefore think it just to make this known through your valuable paper, as it be beneficial both to himself and to others who may require a diver.

The skill, courage and determination of the above Kane being beyond praise, as it is now the winter season, and the water 3½ fathom, with muddy bottom, making the services severe and difficult. Hoping you will excuse the liberty I have taken of addressing you. I am Sir,

Your most obt. servt.

BRITISH VOLUNTEER BRIGADE.

BOUNTY $5,000.

PROBABLE LAND-GRANTS.

Englishmen, Americans and Sons of Foreigners wanted!

CAPT. DAVIS is now forming his brigade at the Restauradores barrack, calle Defensa and Mexico, with special commission from the Argentine Government, to enrol Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen, Americans and Sons of Foreigners for the present campaign against Paraguay.

The bounty is $5,000 with same pay and rations as the Italian Legion, found in uniform, arms and accoutrements. Any man bringing in 25 men will receive an officer's commission in the Brigade, or any 25 men enrolling together may elect their own officer.

The Brigade will be entirely commanded by English officers, and offer a splendid opportunity to our countrymen who may be anxious to take part in the present war and who dislike serving in forces where English is not understood, and the habits of the troops are so different from ours.

Although the commander cannot promise the men anything more than the above bounty and pay, he has great pleasure in stating that a project is about to be laid before the Provincial Legislature for land-grants of several hundred acres to each foreigner bearing arms in the present war. In case such law be passed the election of sites for land will be given in order of priority to those who have first enrolled, and such land-warrants will be disposable even for the benefit of heirs or relatives.

Parties wishing to enlist can see Capt. Davis at the above barracks, on all week-days, between the hours of 12 and 2.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

ARRIVAL OF THE RIO DE LA PLATA.

GREAT UPROAR IN SALTO.

YOUNG FLORES SHOOTING A HOTEL-KEEPER.

The steamer Rio de la Plata arrived early yesterday morning from Concordia. As she was not expected in before 12 o'clock, the crowd on the Mole was not so great as usual. The passengers on being interrogated as to the news, stated there was nothing particular; the allied army still remained at Concordia. We received from our intelligent correspondent in Salto the following important letter:—

Salto, August 6.

News has come in to-day from Uruguayana by a 'chasque,' that that place has been abandoned without fighting, but still no authentic or reliable information has come to hand, except from private sources. Government will not publish bad news; and I will not and cannot guarantee the truth of this; but it having been told to me by two influential Colorado gentlemen in town, who, I know would hardly say it without foundation, gives a certain amount of credence to it.

A great riot took place here last Thursday. The Brazilian troops attacked the police of the town for having arrested a Brazilian soldier who had committed a robbery. Your correspondent was called in next day by the Brazilian Consul, with three other gentlemen, to investigate the affair, but the decision has not been come to yet. One soldier (Brazilian) was killed, the 'comisario's' quarters fired into by a party of 100 soldiers, doors smashed, rooms sacked, and the greatest alarm in town. It has been the greatest riot yet in this place.

Full particualrs in next by Tevere; also of Don Eduardo Flore's attack on one of the two principal hotel-keepers of this town, wounding him severely; damages through the Italian Consul laid at an enormous sum, and supported by the Minister at Montevideo.

Yours, N.

LATEST NEWS FROM RIO.

IMPORTANT ITEMS.

The steamer Herschell arrived yesterday, bringing several days' later news from Rio Janeyro.

In that city the most intense war feeling prevails, and the constant arrival of refugee families from the provinces has increased the sensation.

A division is crossing through San Paulo, bound for Matto Grosso, and the Rio papers publish some interesting items from the commanding officer.

An Italian shopkeeper from Curumba has arrived near Rio, having crossed through the heart of Brazil. Curumba has been fortified by the Paraguayans. In Cuyaba there is a garrison of 400 Paraguayans and two steamers.

Sr. Pereira, from Matto Grosso, also escaped. He suffered the 'most unheard of hardships in crossing the country: his wife and children were murdered by the Indians.

In Rio there was nothing else talked of but the war. Business dull, gold scarce and at a premium. Recruiting is the order of the day throughout the entire empire.

NEWS FROM ENTRE-RIOS.

We have received papers from Gualeguaychú 7th, Concordia 6th, and Mercedes (Rio Negro) 3rd inst.

The Blanco refugees have received special assurances (says the 'Porvenir') from General Urquiza that they shall not be molested, notwithstanding the urgency of the Buenos Ayrean press in calling on President Mitre, for their removal. The same paper criticizes some verses by a Brazilian officer, published in the 'Tribuna,' about drinking out of Paraguayan's skulls; and the tone of the Entre-Rian papers is far from favorable to the Triple Alliance.

Rumors were current of a engagement having taken place between Flores and the enemy beyond the Miriñay, but the result is unknown. It is also said that Canavarro had crossed the Uruguay and fought a battle in Misiones.

On the 2nd inst. Mme. Miguel Gonsalez gave a grand party at Concordia to the officers of the Buenos Ayres and Santa Fé infantries. Lieut. Guillon, who died at Rosario, was a native of Entre-Rios and had been educated at New York.

From the Rio Negro (Banda Oriental) we learn that two deserters and a quantity of arms have been seized in the islands near Mercedes. A merchant named Antonio Moreno died suddenly of apoplexy. A grand ball took place at Fray Bentos on the 2nd, and business was improving.

NEWS OF THE WAR.

The correspondences published by us and our colleagues from the seat of war are pretty much of accord, and may be summed up as follows:

Robles or Barrios is gone east to look after Paunero, who is near Mercedes, in the centre of Corrientes.

Caceres with his militia has had to fall back, notwithstanding the victory of Ambrosio, and is now near Goya.

The Brazilian fleet seems to have been an impassive spectator of the sack of Bella Vista, and even allowed the enemy's steamers to come down and carry away the booty.

The invading column on the Paraná is not less than 30,000 men, and the sack of Goya will be the next news.

The winter-quarters and new plantations seem to have been abandoned on learning the affair of Basualdo, when active operations re-commenced.

Gen. Urquiza has again summoned his army for August 28th, but the events of the campaign will probably changeplans in the interim.

Gen. Paunero's division is about equi-tdisant from the Paraná and Uruguay, and will, we hope, come up with Flores' army, before the Paraguayans come up.

On evacuating Bella Vista by the inhabitants they filled no less than 14 sailing vessels, all escaping in great terror.

LATEST FROM PAUNERO'S CAMP.

Garcia-cuè, Dep. of Mercedes,
July 20th.

My dear friend:—

Since my last there has been nothing of importance hereaboats, and I write now to give you the diary of our march since leaving Puesto del Medio. We were encamped there until the 15th, when we got orders to march and moved on to the estancia called 'the lonely tree' [Arbol solo] where we remained till the 17th: marched to Puesto Punta (coast of the river Batel) and stayed there till the 20th: next to Itacurubí, and left there for Paso Colodrero on the 21st.; camped next day at Paso Tala; on the 23rd at Paso Mellizos, were we halted till the 26th, on which day we pushed on to Paso Nuevo on the river of Corrientes and commenced crossing the river. On the 27th we encamped beyond the river, waiting to get our baggage and artillery across. Marched on the 28th for Costa Pay-ubre Garcia-cuè, where we have remained till to-day, and have now received orders again to march.

According to rumors prevalent here a large body of Paraguayans is coming in pursuit of us, which will account for our making such precipitous marches; although according to others we are pushing on to a rendezvous where General Mitre has agreed to meet us with the army. I think before long we shall have great military operations.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Rio de la Plata from Concordia arrived in port yesterday bringing very important news from Salto, Banda Oriental. Full particulars will be found in our correspondent's letter.

A very important scheme for colonizing all the southern portion of this Province, from the Rio Colorado to the Straits of Magellan, has been presented to Congress. We have received a pamphlet on the subject which we will review after the packet leaves. The proposal is one of the most stupendous ever brought before the public, and although it has our entire support, we entertain grave doubts of its being carried out.

Our colleague the 'Nacion' publishes a statistical table of the whole 'guardia nacional' of the Republic, which amounts to 184,478 men; it is a humiliating fact that notwithstanding this great number, the Government finds such difficulty in getting a few thousand men.

We have seen a drawing of Sr. Dutcil's new statue for the public school at Chivilcoy; it will be a credit to the sculptor who is a gentleman of great talent, and an ornament to that thriving town.

The town is greatly divided as to Genl. Urquiza and his men, some believe that his army will be ready when the war is over, others that he will be in the field in a few days. A member of Congress has offered to bet one hundred ounces that in a few days Urquiza will have his army ready to march. Will no one take him up?

Susini's regiment is gone at last; the Pavon took the men up to Concordia. Mateo Martinez's regiment was to have been shipped yesterday, but the Tevere did not arrive as was expected: they will probably be shipped to-day.

Yesterday there was a general anxiety to hear something about Flores and his rumored fight with the Paraguayans. Strange to say, there is not a man in town who knows any thing, save of course the Minister of War, we have studied the map as carefully as if we were in command of the allied army and are of opinion that there has been no fight whatsoever yet.

A vessel has arrived in port from Pomerania with sixty negretti rams and seventy negretti ewes: these animals come from the well known establishment of Mr. Homeyer, consigned to Messrs. H. Bunge and Co., and will be sold on the 18th by Mr. Nazar the auctioneer. We hear so much about this far famed breed that we think it worthy of special notice. Homeyer's negrette sheep are probably the best known in this country: all the leading estancieros of Buenos Ayres have one or more of these celebrated rams, Mr. Hannah, Mr. Clark, Mr. Van Praet, Sr. Cascallares, Amadeo, Mr. Healy and others. In Entre Rios they are to be found on Mr. Black's estancia, and in the Banda Oriental some of the principal estancieros also have them. The animals landed yesterday are strong, healthy and in prime condition; we recommend our country friends to inspect them.

The subscription for the widow of Capdevila, of the Bolsa, amounted to $59,000 m|c.

The embargo has been taken off Sr. Egusquiza's property. We learn of a horrible murder in Ensenada: details to-morrow.

Yesterday the absorbing topic through town was Mr. Oldendorff's splendid Arabian horses. The place where the animals are was crowded, and we noticed there the leading men of Buenos Ayres; having been promised a full account of these splendid animals, we have only to say that they are the admiration of all who have seen them.

The Herschel left Montevideo on Sunday night but was blown back by the storm: she landed her mails and passengers about 1 o'clock yesterday. She brings a large and valuable cargo.

A young woman dressed in men's clothes was chased down Calle Bolivar on Tuesday night by an alcalde and two policemen; she escaped by suddenly entering a house in calle Belgrano and gaining the azotea.

THE FORTIN DE ARECO.

JUDGE'S REPORT.

The Partido of the Fortin, or as it is now called Carmen de Areco, is one of the richest and most important districts in this province, peopled as it is by foreigners, nearly all of whom are wealthy and independent men: it boasts of more sheep and wool than any other northern partido of the same size. Probably the real cause why this partido has made such rapid strides is, that the virtual Justice of the Peace and administrator of public affairs, is Mr. Archibald Craig, one of the most active, energetic, go-a-head foreigners in this country.

Some ten years ago this partido was regarded as a frontier district, but it soon became thickly settled when Mr. Hall, Mr. Murray, and a few other enterprising foreigners purchased estates in the locality. Hitherto, however, this district has had one great drawback, inasmuch as it lies on the high road to the provinces. Whenever there is a row, revolution, or civil war, either army, and generally both, passed through the Fortin, which has been the cause of much and severe loss to our countrymen. Judging from the report before us, we would opine that the town is improving and the population prosperous; but we notice many strange items in the accounts before us, which call for explanation.

The Judge, who appears to be a sort of Argentine Laird, has evidently discovered some important relics of the past, probably in his own garden, for he begins his report by telling the Minister that the Fortin is the most ancient town in the province, and yet notwithstanding this, it has received less protection from the Government than any other town in the camp.

The church of the Fortin is beyond all question the St. Sophia of the river Plate, for his Worship says it has already cost one million, and is not yet completely finished. Of this sum the Government has only contributed the paltry sum of $40,000, and the consequence is, that the Municipality not only is in debt to all the neighbors about, but actually to many of the very workmen: the architect's bill was only paid last year. The Judge remarks that in order to get up his report he has been obliged to examine the 'archives,' which are in a most deplorable state; and he notes with regret that whilst every other town is progressing, the Fortin is becoming worse and worse. There is no 'juzgado' or house for the Judge, and consequently the only court in the town is held in an old shed or outhouse. An old tumble-down 'rancho' was formerly the official residence of the Judge, until his Excellency changed quarters The prison is in such a shocking state, that the stocks would frighten old Riccabocca, or Mr. Hazeldean himself; prisoners put in at night have to be rounded all night, otherwise they are 'non est inventus' in the morning.

Thanks to the generosity of the Government, which has given one hundred thousand dollars, a public school for boys is about to be built; it cost three hundred thousand dollars, but it will be a magnificent building when finished and paid for. This building his Worship says will point to posterity what Governor Saavedra did for the town, and be an imperishable monument of the great go-a-headism of his Excellency.

But the state of the police seems to be the most shocking thing imaginable. The Judge says the poor fellows have not even got clothes, and that 12 'vigilantes' are unable to keep order and maintain the law. On the 15th February last year the Government was requested to send clothes for the policemen; but to this hour the Minister has not sent down even a second-hand 'chiripa.' At night time the town is completely abandoned, as the policemen retire early to rest. The state of crime seems to be something frightful, for the Judge says that in consequence of the repeated robberies on the estancias, a special commission has been named to inquire into the matter. It appears that there has been systematic robbery going on, driving cattle, &c., up to the provinces. The Judge regards the pedlars or 'mercachilles' as a sort of Paraguayans, who by an illicit trade are ruining the shopkeepers and cheating the Government.

The Municipal rent for the year amounts to $117,000, a rather respectable sum. 'Guias' for produce give $8,680. Señal papers for sheep $9,200, and 'quintas' sold $8,883. Rent of chacras, $34,126. This looks well. Contribucion Directa looks rather small, $5,013. Licenses or patentes, $24,664. This shows the trade of the place; and fines $8,000, which is higher than in other partidos.

The money, of course, has been all spent, but we notice that the amount put down for celebration of public feasts, fire-crackers, &c., is beyond all precedent, 17,738. Why, it would seem as if they had a holiday every week in the Fortin. Then again the improving of the plaza seems rather dear, $15,696, for posts and chains. The plaza must be much larger than in the other towns, and the lamps put up round the town, a necessary improvement, are not to say cheap in $4,000 m|c.

The following are debts due by the town:—

Dn. Justo Rodriguez, cash lent on church		$50,000
" Marcelino Romero	do.	13,137
" Juan Pedernera	do.	20,588
		$83,722

Mr. Edward Rodriguez seems a pushing sort of judge, and we hope will drive the Fortin ahead, but he gives no statistics as to the population or stock of the partido, and we hope next year he will improve on his report.

THE ARGENTINE CUSTOM-HOUSES IN 1864.

Rosario, August 7th, 1865.

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Gentlemen.

I have been reading an article of yours on the above named subject in your weekly impression of 2nd inst, and its perusal obliges me to make a few observations on your manner of treating this important matter: without pretending to be either a Montgomery Martin, or a M'Culloch the statistics of a nation's commerce have always for me a peculiar interest, when they are framed on correct bases; when not done in this manner, they must only appear as a mockery, a delusion and a snare. You state:—

"The Custom-house of Buenos Ayres stands for more than three-fourths of the whole revenue, shewing an aggregate of 5¼ millions, while Rosario, Gualeguaychú, Concordia and Concepcion make up another million, and the remaining 28 ports barely add up half a million.

Rosaries occupies the second rank undisputed, contributing 600,000 $ which shews that Buenos Ayres has still nine times the trade of the great port of the Provinces. In Rosario the imports are as 4 to 1 with the exports; while in Buenos Ayres they only stand as 2 to 1."

Perhaps it may be no harm for me to give you a statistical table of last year's returns of our Custom-house Exports here, given to me by the Administrador, Señor Yaniz. They are as follows:—

Exports from Rosario in 1864.

Exports liable to duty in Rosario $1,190,799, Exchange at 21 Bol. 4 rls. for the ounce at 65s in London, £180,972

Do duty free 1,299,689, do do £197, 521.

Do payable for duty in B. Ayres $84,660. — Total 3,375,150, do. do £134,466.—Total £512,858.

What I simply desire to know is whether your Custom-house includes these products from the interior provinces paying duty in transitu at Bueno Ayres as its own exports, or whether they are credited to their proper source

Your remarks about the imports at Rosario being as 4 to 1 with exports, whilst in Buenos Ayres they only stand as 3 to 2 obliges me to make a few more observations. I have before me some tables compiled by Señor J. A. Campos who was Gefe de la Oficina. Estadistica here in 1860-61. One of these tables—that for the first quarter of the year 1861, gives the following statement of the value of exports to places outside of this port.

Valor por Naciones.	Bolivian dol.	Eng. money.
Buenos Ayres	645 188 65	£112 905
Inglaterra	21 257 77	£3 720
Estado Oriental	61 215 51	£10 712
	$727 661 93	£127 310

Let me ask you, does not this strike you as a perfect farce of a statistical return, unless indeed we are to believe that all the wool, hides, and copper proceeding from Rosario are intended in the above proportion, perhaps disproportion would be a better word—between Buenos Ayres and England. Do your Custom-house people reckon those native products of the provinces amongst its imports, and do they enumerate them amongst the productions of their own province, when sent to Europe or North America? And another little question. Can having duties to pay in Buenos Ayres for exporting from Rosario, or elsewhere, have anything to do with the conclusion you arrive at, that the Buenos Ayres Custom-house stands for more than three-fourths of the whole revenue of the nation.

You know, Gentlemen, that I am not fond of carping, but a thing like this—so directly contrary to common justice—galls me even in this cool weather: no one respects Buenos Ayres politics, paper-money, and its own idea of being the "be all and the end all" of the Argentine Republic more than I do. But tall talk of the kind I cannot stand; as the Doctors say it is not good for the health of

Your obt. servant,
A ROSARINO.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.

Since the explosion of the Retiro, no unforeseen calamity has come to shock the propriety of our citizens, and indeed public misfortunes (wars excepted) are happily so rare in these countries that precaution is a quality unknown. A word in time may, however be apropos; and we will even risk the epithet of 'Job's comforter', by calling attention to the fact that a great calamity such as those common in Europe may happen at any time and find us wholly unprepared for the consequences.

If a plague broke out to-morrow, thousands would fall victims, and afterwards it would be discovered that the Recoleta cemetery was too full, that bad meat and vegetables were openly sold in the markets, that some Brazilians had imported the small-pox from Salto, or that the water-vendors were not particular where they took a supply for their carts.

If the prisoners in the Cabildo sallied out 'en masse' and could not be re-captured, it would be discovered when too late that the guard was kept in a slovenly manner, that no regular inspection took place, and that the insecurity of the prison amounted to insecurity for life or property.

If a disastrous fire consumed one of our city-blocks, it would probably extend through several streets before being got under or dying out, and then we should learn that the police relied on the Volunteer fire-brigade, and the engines of the latter accidentally got out of order.

If a fearful railway accident plunged some hundred families in mourning it would be owing to some bridge giving way, or some driver getting drunk, or a mistake of signals, which could have been averted if there were a general inspector of railways and steamboats.

If some three-story house hastily put up fell down like the Concepcion church killing 50 persons, the blame would be put on the architect, until some one casually hinted municipal responsability.

If burglary and street assaults became of daily occurrence, the sufferers would vainly complain to the Gefe de Policia, and the organization of the foot-pads be found perhaps superior to that of the Police.

If bands of deserters suddenly infested the rural districts, the Justices of Peace would draw up 'Sumarios' of the fact, but declare their utter impotency to crush the evil.

If another gunpowder explosion took place, with still more fatal consequences, people would wonder at such incaution, but no one in particular would be found to blame, and a funeral service would end the catastrophe.

These are, obviously, calamities which may happen at any time, and to which we are at present more exposed, since the attention of the authorities is so much taken up with the war that even ordinary precaution in other matters is neglected. Our earnestness in wishing Buenos Ayres may be saved from any and all such misfortunes is exactly the reason why we call the notice of the Government and the public to the old adage which forms the title of these remarks.

INTERESTING TO SHEEP-BREEDERS

Our paper has always been open to all that could increase the prosperity of this country, as we considered it our duty in doing so to acknowledge the great hospitality which the country of our adoption is so kindly affording us.

With a similar view, we published a short time ago an article taken and translated from the German paper published in this city, referring to a new arrival of some superior Negretti ewes and rams selected by Mr. Ernest Oldendorff of the well known Estancia Santa Maria, during his last visit to Germany.

This shipment consisting of 115 ewes and 87 rams has arrived in the meantime in splendid condition on board the ship Leibnitz from Hamburg, and as we have heard this collection spoken of in the most praiseworthy terms, we resolved to inspect it in person, to satisfy duly our own curiosity.

We had also seen Mr. Oldendorff's former importations, and knowing that his reputation of being a practical and thoroughly experienced sheepbreeder both in Europe and here, is most justly established, we were prepared to find a very superior selection,—yet we must confess that our expectations have been exceeded by far, by the animals which Mr. Oldendorff has presented to us for inspection and which form his last importation.

Undoubtedly it is a high guarantee for us to see animals imported by a man who must be after his long experience, and being proprietor of a well known establishment in this country, well acquainted with the necessary character and quantities of animals suiting the purposes of our sheepbreeders. We now do not hesitate to acknowledge that we consider it our duty to pay Mr. Oldendorff our compliments for the splendid selection he made.

Any man interested in this matter, will know that the actual circumstances of this country do not allow the breed of what is called highly refined sheep, but that it ought to be the problem of our breeders to create well woolled animals, that is to say, always connected with a certain fineness and softness of the wool. We can assert that, according to our opinion, these qualities are fully represented in Mr. Oldendorff's animals as we seldom have seen such abundance of wool joined with the necessary fineness. But we cannot be surprised by such facts when we examine the pedigrees of the animals which proceed from the most renowned establishments of Passow, Falkenhagen and Weisin where only Negretti sheep of the purest breed are kept and which originate from the celebrated old establishment of Hochstisch.

Mr. Oldendorff tells us that he intends to sell on the 22nd inst. by public auction [at Messrs. Stock and Co's. house—23 calle Chacabuco—where the animals are to be seen], a part of the ewes and rams, leaving the whole lot for selection. We call the attention of our countrymen and estancieros in general to this sale as we consider it a most eligible opportunity to secure some really good specimens, for an improvement of their flocks.

We regret that we could not see at the same time the stallions and mares of pure Arabian breed, also imported by Mr. Oldendorff, as they have not yet been landed: hence we have to postpone our report about them for another early opportunity. These horses have been bought out of the studs of the King of Wurtemberg which are known to be the most celebrated in the continent of Europe.

Before closing these lines, we may congratulate this country and especially our camp friends that they count men amongst them who, with valuable perseverance and knowledge, make it their study to improve the breeding of animals like these, which constitute the riches of this country.

CAPTURE IN CORDOBA OF THE MURDERERS OF MR. MARSHALL.

The last Diligence arriving in Rosario on Friday night, 4th inst. brings intelligence of the murderers of Mr. Marshall being caught at a place called Colonia, about ten leagues north of the City of Cordoba. They have confessed the crime. The chief assassin is Jose Alarcon, a native of Buenos Ayres, but who has been for several years occupied in Rosario as a carter. Indeed he was recognised in Cordoba by Don Ramon Torres and Don Miguel Rueda—both of whom are respectable merchants from Rosario. His two accomplices are Juan Ferreyra and Manuel Carrizo, the former of whom says he endeavoured to persuade Alarcon from committing the foul deed. Alarcon is said to be a nephew of the well known Chivengo. Part of Mr. Marshall's binocular glass were found on his person when captured. It seems that by the mark of Mr. Marshall's horse, published in placards by the English Commission in Rosario, these ruffians had been tracked by the zeal and activity of a Cordoba detective named Don Pancho Gigena, who goes by the name of Don Pancho Diligencia, and when the last mail left, they were heavily laden with irons at the police station waiting to be conveyed down to Rosario.

Their confession is to the following effect, and is uncommonly cool. It seems they were helping themselves to one of Mr. Marsball's shssp when that gentleman approaching, Alarcon who had a pistol and very probably knew that Mr. Marshall never carried one, fired at and missed the latter gentleman. Mr. Marshall set spurs to his horse no doubt turning towards home; but Alarcon pursued, overtook, and stabbed him, repeating the stabs, till he killed him. The annals of crime can scarcely furnish such a cold-blooded outrage.

AWFUL OCCURRENCE.

On Tuesday evening a shocking affair occured at the corner of calles Santa Fé and Andes. It appears the neighborhood is infested with gangs of ferocious dogs, and one of these animals waylaid a poor child only 5 years old, inflicting such injuries as to destroy the child's arm and perhaps endanger its life. The little sufferer was at once taken to Dr. Leslie, who, with his usual kindness to the poor of that district, attended to the child's wounds and lent every assistance. There being no police in the neighborhood it is hardly to be hoped such cases will not be repeated; but we understand that Dr. Leslie intends to call serious attention to the evil. The dog in question has been killed, but it is necessary to exterminate several hundreds, as some poor families who live by begging keep as many as 15, for the protection of a miserable rancho.

GREAT DIVING FEAT IN THE OUTER ROADS

To the Editors of the 'Standard.'

Sir,

I will feel much obliged if you will mention in your columns the services I have received from Geronimo Kane, who with another diver in the Outer Ronds recovered two pieces of valuable machinery, lost overboard from my vessel, I therefore think it just to make this known through your valuable paper, as it be beneficial both to himself and to others who may require a diver.

The skill, courage and determination of the above Kane being beyond praise, as it is now the winter season, and the water 3½ fathom, with muddy bottom, making the services severe and difficult. Hoping you will excuse the liberty I have taken of addressing you. I am Sir,

By MARIANO BILLINGHURST.

On the joint order and special authorization of H. R. Helper, United States Consul, legal representative of the deceased Bollman Hugar Taggart, and Mr. Joseph Langevin, surviving partner of the said deceased.

Will be sold at the Paso de Morales, on the River Las Conchas, two leagues North of Moron, for cash, to the highest bidder, on Tuesday the 15th day of August next, the well known Water Power Flouring Mill, constructed on the North American model, by Langevin and Taggart, and which is now offered for sale solely for the purpose of closing the estate of the deceased partner, Mr. Taggart, who was accidentally drowned in January last.

The Mill, and every part of its machinery, is in good working condition. It operates on the principle of the central discharge wheel, has one pair of stones, an improved smut machine, first class bolting geer, and will grind about fifty barrels per day,

Belonging to the Mill, as appurtenances, are nearly six squares of land, and an ordinary dwelling house, all of which will be sold, without reserve, as one property.

NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the estate of Bollman Huger Taggart, deceased, are requested to call at once at the United States Consulate and settle: and all creditors of the estate will likewise please come, by or before the 15th August next, and present their claims for liquidation.

H. R. HELPER, U. S. Consul.

JOSEPH LANGEVIN, Surviving Partner of B. H. TAGGART.

Buenos Ayres, July 14, 1865.

N.B.—The sale will take place precisely at 1 o'clock, and at Moron, parties interested will be provided with carriages to convey them up to the premises. 70..2m j15

BRITISH VOLUNTEER BRIGADE.

BOUNTY $5,000.

PROBABLE LAND-GRANTS.

Englishmen, Americans and Sons of Foreigners wanted!

CAPT. DAVIS is now forming his brigade at the Restauradores barrack, calle Defensa and Mexico, with special commission from the Argentine Government, to enrol Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen, Americans and Sons of Foreigners for the present campaign against Paraguay.

The bounty is $5,000 with same pay and rations as the Italian Legion, found in uniform, arms and accoutrements. Any man bringing in 25 men will receive an officer's commission in the Brigade, or any 25 men enrolling together may elect their own officer.

The Brigade will be entirely commanded by English officers, and offer a splendid opportunity to our countrymen who may be anxious to take part in the present war and who dislike serving in forces where English is not understood, and the habits of the troops are so different from ours.

Although the commander cannot promise the men anything more than the above bounty and pay, he has great pleasure in stating that a project is about to be laid before the Provincial Legislature for land-grants of several hundred acres to each foreigner bearing arms in the present war. In case such law be passed the election of sites for land will be given in order of priority to those who have first enrolled, and such land-warrants will be disposable even for the benefit of heirs or relatives.

Parties wishing to enlist can see Capt. Davis at the above barracks, on all week-days, between the hours of 12 and 2.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 102 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense adcantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These adcantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1865.

P.p. Mauá and Co.

CONDITIONS.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p ℅) per annum, which is liquidated ever six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
